My Father's Love

A love so pure, a love so true,
A father's love that shines anew.
Through thick and thin, he stood by me,
A pillar of strength for all to see.

He believed in me, with every breath,
And gave me courage to face each test.
With pride in his heart, and love in his eyes,
He held my hand, and heard my cries.

In times of trouble, he was my guide,
Through every hardship, by my side.
He never faltered, he never strayed,
His unwavering love, my heart has stayed.

He gave me wings, to fly and soar,
To chase my dreams, and reach for more.
He showed me how to be brave and strong,
To face the world, and right every wrong.

My father's love, a precious treasure,
A bond that nothing can measure.
I'll cherish it forever, deep in my heart,
And make him proud, right from the start.

For all he's done, for all he'll be,
My father's love, will always be.
The greatest gift, I've ever known,
A love that's pure, and forever
grown.
